Stamps and covers illustrating the changing types of postal service beginning with independent statehood. Included are some unusual usages.

The following pages show:

I. Independent statehood, with first and last day covers.

II. Confederate usage of United States stamps, postal stationery and handstamped paid.

III. Transition period, including "Southn. Letter Unpaid" to France.

IV. Express mail, including earliest Confederate usage, and express and postal service combinations.

V. Handstamped paids, including four which are the only recorded examples, one on Valentine cover.

VI. Soldiers' due letters.

VII. Postmasters' provisional envelopes and stamps on cover, including two 2¢ values and a newly discovered blockade run cover via Memphis, Tenn.

VIII. General issues, unused and used, including an unused "frame line" with sheet margin and original gum.

IX. General issues on cover, including a 10¢ rose with imprint and 2¢ brown-red strip of five on semi-official cover.

X. Other usages, such as blockade, Trans-Mississippi Express, and a Mexico to Confederate Texas cover with postal markings of both countries.

XI. Prisoner-of-war and flag-of-truce covers, including the only recorded cover from Ft. Columbus Prison, N. Y. and a Valentine cover to a prisoner-of-war.

INDEPENDENT STATEHOOD. FIRST DAY COVERS.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 11, 1861, the day that Alabama seceded. This is the only reported first day cover of the Independent State of Alabama.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 18, 1861, the day that Georgia seceded. This is the only reported first day cover of the Independent State of Georgia.
May 6, (1861). Postmarked at Searcy, Ark. on the day Arkansas seceded from the United States. Arkansas joined the Confederate States on May 18, 1861.

One other first day cover has been reported from this state.

U. S. 3¢ Star Die envelopes were issued in August 1860. They were demonetized in the South on June 1, 1861 and in the North before the end of 1861.
February 3, 1861. Postmarked at Holly Springs, Independent State of Mississippi, on the day before Mississippi joined the Confederate States.

May 6, 1861. Postmarked at Richmond, Independent State of Virginia, on the day before Virginia joined the Confederate States.
May 7, 1861

FIRST DAY OF VIRGINIA AS A CONFEDERATE STATE

The cover was mailed at Harper's Ferry, Jefferson County, Virginia on the day that Virginia Joined the Confederacy.

Jefferson County joined the Union State of West Virginia in November, 1863.

CONFEDERATE USAGE. PATRIOTIC DESIGNS.

U. S. 3¢ envelope postmarked at Mobile, Ala. and adorned with die-cut seal of patriotic shield design.

Handstamped "PAID / 3 / Cts." in circle at Jackson, Miss. on cover with Confederate State Seal design of Mississippi.
United States 3¢ stamp used in Charleston, S. C., April 26, 1861. South Carolina became a member of the Confederate States on February 4, 1861.

Lettersheet enclosure with patriotic design of Palmetto State (S. C.) flag. The letter begins, "I commenced and nearly finished a letter to you soon after the Victory of Fort Sumter."
Packet "Gen'l Hodges" handstamp on Feb. 10, 1861 cover. "WAY" and New Orleans, La. town postmark applied on arrival, six days after Confederate statehood.

"General Hodges" operated on the Red, Ouachita and lower Mississippi Rivers in 1861. She later stayed on the upper Red River and was not captured until the end of the war.
The 10¢ Star Die envelope was in use about one year before it was demonetized in the Fall of 1861.

The cover was mailed when Virginia was an independent state and arrived after Virginia joined the Confederate States.
May 31, 1861 usage from Fredericksburg, Va. on United States 3¢ Star Die envelope. The last day that U. S. postage could be used in the Confederate States.

Letter dated May 30, 1861 enclosed, with news of the War and of President Jefferson Davis.
U. S. Postmaster General Montgomery Blair ordered suspension of mail delivery to the "Seceded States" as of May 28, 1861. On that day this Star Die cover, addressed to the seceded State of Louisiana, was postmarked at Boston, Mass. The Boston Post Office disobeyed Blair's order by placing the cover in the regular mail instead of forwarding it to the Dead Letter Office.

It is probable that the cover traveled by way of the Memphis route, which remained open during the first part of June. It was found with other covers of earlier dates and same address in New Orleans, La.
This cover was mailed at Boston, Mass. for transmission to Hurnenton, Va. The cover could not be delivered; mail service to that part of Virginia had been discontinued because of wartime conditions.

The cover was sent to the Dead Letter Office in Washington, D. C., where it was opened, examined and returned to the sender. Postage due of three cents was charged.
U. S. 3¢ stamp postmarked Kansas, Mo., used in a border state to express Confederate sentiment.
New Orleans, La. to Paris, France. Dated June 10 at New Orleans, with 15¢ in stamps for United States to France rate. U. S. stamps from the South were not accepted after June 1, so the cover was rated "Due 15" at Louisville, Ky. Carried unpaid by American packet, via England, to France as indicated by New York and French exchange office markings. Large "8" for 8 decimes due from the addressee.

One other similar cover reported.

EARLY ADAMS EXPRESS COVERS (Before June 1861)

April 16, (1861). Earliest reported from Atlanta, Ga. Carried from Atlanta to New York City entirely by express.

This cover was carried south by express from New York City to Augusta, Ga. where it was mailed at the post office. Then it traveled northwest by regular mail to Athens, Tenn.
This cover was carried across the lines from Louisville, Ky. to Nashville, Tenn. by express. Adams Express mailed it at the Nashville post office, where it received the handstamped "PAID 10" and blue town postmark dated Aug. 14, 1861. It was postmarked again on Aug. 15, 1861 and traveled by regular mail to New Orleans, La.

Normal express route.
This cover was carried south from Adams Express Baltimore, Md. office (large circle) to its Augusta, Ga. office (blue oval). The following day it was mailed at the Augusta post office (small double-circle postmark and handstamped "PAID 10"). Then it traveled by regular mail to Greensboro, N. C.

Uncommon route.
This cover was carried across the lines from the South by express and by regular United States mail beyond.

The cover arrived at the American Letter Express office in Louisville, Ky. on July 9, 1861 and mailed at the post office on the following day.
Soon after the first seven states seceded Adams Express Co. renamed its southern operation "Southern Express."

The cover, which was carried outside the mail, shows both names. It was used in Virginia after formation of the Confederate States, but before Virginia seceded.
Circular date stamp of Southern Express Co. Raleigh, N. C. office on printed Adams Southern Express envelope.

This cover was carried only by express.

This is the only recorded example.

The enclosure, which is on the following album page, is a printed form letter dated July 3, 1861, the day after Tennessee was admitted to the Confederate States.

The letter reads in part:

"...we now propose to accept in payment of our claims the notes of reputable Banks of any of the Confederate States, at par until the 15th of August 1861.

"As the Messrs Cochran are not citizens of the United States, but subjects of Great Britain and our Mr. Thompson is a citizen of Tennessee; the law suspending payment of debts due to the citizens of the Northern States does not of course apply to our claims."
Nashville July 3rd 1861

Dear Sirs,

A few days ago we issued a Circular announcing that we had opened a Stock of goods in this city. As this movement may be misconstrued by some, we now wish to state distinctly that we intend to establish a House permanently in the Confederate States and design to import direct this Fall if practicable. But we cannot do this unless our customers make an effort to pay us their past due paper; and to facilitate this, we now propose to accept in payment of our claims the notes of reputable Banks of any of the Confederate States at par until the 15th of August 1861.

As the Messrs. Cochran are not citizens of the United States, but subjects of Great Britain and our Mr. Thompson is a citizen of Tennessee, the law suspending payment of debts due to citizens of the Northern States does not of course apply to our Claims.

Very truly yours,

Cochran & Co.

AN ACT
To exempt Contractors for carrying the Mails of the Confederate States and the Drivers of Post Coaches and Hacks from Military Service.

The Congress of the Confederate States of America do enact, that the contractors for carrying the mails of the Confederate States shall be exempt from the performance of military duty in the armies of the Confederate States, from and after the passage of this act, during the time they are such contractors: provided, that no more than one contractor shall be exempt on any route, and that no more than one member of any firm of contractors shall be exempt, and no contractor on any route of less than ten miles in length, and on which the mail is carried on horse, shall be exempt under this act; and if one or more members of any such firm be exempt from age or other cause from the performance of military duty, the other member, or members of such firm, shall not be exempt by this act on account of being mail contractors: and provided further, that no person to whom a contract for carrying the mails may be transferred, with the consent of the Post Office Department, after the passage of this act, shall be exempt from military service on that account.

SEC. 2. That drivers of post coaches and hacks for carrying the mails on all routes where the weight of the mails requires that they should be carried in coaches or hacks, shall be exempt from military service in the armies of the Confederate States from and after the passage of this act, so long as they continue to be employed as such drivers: provided, the contractor by whom any such driver is employed, shall take and subscribe an oath to be furnished to the enrolling officer, that the weight of the mails on his route requires the use of coaches or hacks for their conveyance, and that he has not a greater number of drivers employed in his service than are indispensably necessary to enable him to fulfill his contract for carrying the mails, and that he will not, while a contractor, employ a greater number of drivers than may be indispensably necessary for that purpose; and that he will give notice to the enrolling officer when any such driver ceases to be in his employment.

APPROVED April 14, 1863.

Mail contractors and drivers of post coaches exempt from military duty.

Fort Delaware, Delaware. Cover from a prisoner of war.

Johnson's Island, Sandusky, Ohio. Examined by "F. W. R." Cover to a prisoner of war.
"Care of Robert Ould, Agt. of Exchange, Richmond, Va., April 29th 1863, St. Louis, Mo.," endorsement on left side of cover.

This unsealed cover was enclosed in an outer envelope at St. Louis, Mo. and crossed the lines by flag of truce. It was removed from the outer envelope at Richmond, Va., where the 10¢ stamp was canceled and the cover forwarded to addressee in North Carolina.
Prisoner of War cover to Georgia from Fort Columbus, N.Y. Prison on Governors Island in New York Harbor. Col. Charles H. Olmstead of Georgia mailed this cover to his wife while he was confined at the prison in April 1862 (Official Records II; 3 pp 500, 522-23).

This is the only recorded P.O.W. cover from Fort Columbus Prison.

The first official Prisoner of War mail between the United States and the Confederate States passed through Norfolk, Va. in the South under Flag of Truce. The Norfolk route was in use only six months because Norfolk was occupied by Federal forces in early May 1862. United States postage was paid by the 3¢ stamp. The blue "10" indicates Confederate postage due of ten cents.

This is the last known P.O.W. cover to pass through the Norfolk, Va. route.
This cover traveled the first official Flag of Truce route, Norfolk, Va. in the South to Old Point Comfort, Va. in the North.

The unsealed cover was enclosed in an outer envelope that was mailed in the Confederate States to Norfolk, Va. To pay for United States postage, a half dime was attached to the inner envelope under the small strip of blue paper.

After traveling by Flag of Truce boat from Norfolk to Old Point Comfort, the outer envelope was discarded and the coin removed. A U. S. 3¢ stamp was attached and the cover forwarded to Philadelphia. When the blue paper is lifted, the impression of the removed coin can be seen.

Norfolk, Va. was captured in May 1862 and the route was discontinued.
Across-the-lines cover from Point Lookout, Md. to Little Yadkin, N. C. by way of Richmond, Va., where it was rated "DUE 10" for Confederate postage. Large oval "APPROVED" handstamp of J. A. Patterson, Capt. & Provost Marshal.

Prisoner's letter enclosed. Written on one side of a single letter sheet as per regulations.
From "Olin, N. C., Sep. 6th, 1864" (manuscript postmark), "Care of Hon. Robt Ould, Commissioner of Exchange, Richmond, Va.," to a Prisoner of War.

At City Point, near Richmond, Va., the cover was placed on Flag of Truce boat, which carried it to Old Point Comfort, Va. Then, it was forwarded to Johnson's Island, Ohio.

Examined on arrival at the prison by "G. S. B."
From a Prisoner of War at Fort McHenry in Baltimore, Md. Inscribed "Through Comd'g Officer at Fortress Monroe..."

This cover traveled from Baltimore to Fortress Monroe at Old Point Comfort, Va. Then, by Flag of Truce boat to City Point, near Richmond. The Confederate stamp was canceled at Richmond, Va. and the cover forwarded to Little's Mills, N. C.

One other similar Black Jack cover is recorded.
Howell's "The Bruised Heart" envelope sent "Via Flag truce" to a prisoner of war at Point Lookout, Md., in care of Major Brady (Provost Marshal). Censor's initial "B" at left of the stamps.

Printed in Ohio in 1864, the envelope was mailed in North Carolina with pair of 5¢ blue stamps and traveled via Old Point Comfort, Va., where a U. S. 3¢ stamp was attached over the Confederate stamps. The letter probably was not received as the prison clerk's notes in red say, "Jan. 25, 1865 / From wife / No. Ca. / Dead."

Illustrated on Page 102 in "Civil War Prisons and Their Covers" by Earl Antrim.
ACROSS THE LINES COVER. ENVELOPE OF RECYCLED PAPER.

Durham's (Durham's Station), N. C. to Baltimore, Md. via Richmond, Va. and Old Point Comfort, Va. This cover crossed the lines between Richmond and Old Point Comfort, probably by Flag of Truce Boat "New York." Postage was paid by Confederate and United States stamps.

My dear Mary:

Hope my long silence has not led you to imagine for one moment that I have forgotten all! — What I say in this letter must be confined to narrow limits: I am still a prisoner and confined in Danville Military Prison. I am at present four hundred and eight on two floors of this building — then an additional thirty in the hospital. We have considered it very healthy.
